STIPULATED AND [PROPOSED] EXTENDED
 PROTECTIVE ORDER GOVERNING
 CONFIDENTIAL & HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
 INFORMATION

1 1. PURPOSES & LIMITATIONS

2 1.1 In the course of discovery, the parties exchanged documents, items, material,
3 and other information that contain sensitive, confidential, proprietary, and/or private
4 information that merits special protection from public disclosure. Having reached a
5 settlement of the litigation, the parties anticipate that they may continue to exchange
6 sensitive, confidential, proprietary, and/or private information that merits special 7 protection from public disclosure during the term of the settlement. Accordingly, the 8 parties hereby stipulate to and petition the Court to enter the following Extended
9 Stipulated Protective Order. Such sensitive and confidential information may include (a) 10 security arrangements; security plans, practices, policies, procedures, protocols or 11 guidelines; security audits or reviews; building layouts; or documents reflecting 12 architectural plans, blueprints or schematics whose efficacy may be undermined by 13 disclosure to the public, including but not limited to floor plans or plans specific to building
14 security features, enhancements or vulnerabilities; (b) information subject to the Privacy
15 Act (codified at 5 U.S.C § 552a) or the official information privilege that is protected from 16 disclosure, in order to comply with the law; (c) material containing private and confidential
17 third-party information protected by the right to privacy guaranteed in the Federal 18 Constitution and the First Amendment, in order to protect the privacy interest of those 19 third-parties; and (d) other information that Defendants are precluded from publicly
20 disclosing by regulation or statute.<sup>2</sup>
21
22
23
24
25
26

27 <sup>2</sup> The existence of this protective order does not necessarily authorize or require the 28 disclosure of all or any information protected from disclosure by statute or regulation.

1           1.2     The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections
2 on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public 3 disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to 4 confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. The parties further
5 acknowledge, as set forth in section 12, below, that this Extended Stipulated Protective
6 Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-
7 5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied
8 when a party seeks permission from the Court to file material under seal.

11           1.3     Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b)(11), this Extended Stipulated Protective Order
12 authorizes the Producing Party to produce to the Receiving Party and the Court
13 discoverable information pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c) sought during ongoing discovery
14 containing unredacted confidential and highly confidential information. To the extent the 15 relevant statute or regulation allows the disclosure of information pursuant to a court
16 order, this Order constitutes such a court order and authorizes disclosure of that 17 information.

19           1.4     The Parties agree that the terms of this Protective Order will govern the 20 production of information as well as the safeguarding of such information by all individuals 21 referenced in sections 7 and 12.
22

23     2.     DEFINITIONS

24           2.1     Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of 25 information or items under this Order.
26
27
28

1           2.2     "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items: any information (regardless of how 2 it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that are not publicly available and
3 qualify for protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c), pursuant to applicable
4 laws, statutes, or regulations,<sup>3</sup> such as the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552a including: (a) the 5 names and alien numbers of the particular individual(s) to whom the information relates 6 and (b) any personally identifying information related to third parties other than the 7 individual whose information is being sought, including, but not limited to, information
8 regarding familial relatives of individuals.

11           2.3.     Consulting Counsel: attorneys who are not Counsel of Record, but are (1) 12 affiliated with or employed by a law firm, agency, or organization that has appeared on 13 behalf of a Party and (2) consulted by a Party or by Counsel of Record for the purpose of 14 litigating this action.
15

16           2.4     Counsel of Record: Counsel (as well as their support staff) who appear or 17 have appeared in this action on behalf of a Party in this action.

18           2.5     Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items
19 that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as "CONFIDENTIAL" or 20 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL."

22           2.6     Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the 23 medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other 24 things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in 25

26
27
28 <sup>3</sup> The existence of this protective order does not necessarily authorize the disclosure of all or any information protected from disclosure by statute or regulation.

1 disclosures or responses to discovery or pursuant to the parties' settlement agreement in 2 this matter.

3       2.7     Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter
4 pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an 5 expert witness or as a consultant in this action.

7       2.8     "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items: any information (regardless 8 of how it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that are not publicly 9 available that the Designating Party believes contains information that is so sensitive from 10 a law enforcement perspective or privacy perspective that it should be destroyed or 11 returned after final resolution of this action.
12

13       2.9     Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or 14 other legal entity who is not named as a Party to this action.
15

16       2.10    Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors,
17 employees, consultants, retained experts, and counsel (including their support staffs).
18

19       2.11    Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery
20 Material in this action.

21       2.12    Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated
22 as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL."

23       2.13    Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from 24 a Producing Party.
25
26
27
28

1 3. SCOPE

2 3.1 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only
3 Protected Material (as defined above), but also (a) any information copied or extracted
4 from Protected Material; (b) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected
5 Material; and (c) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel
6 that might reveal Protected Material. However, the protections conferred by this 7 Stipulation and Order do not cover the following information: (a) any information that is in 8 the public domain at the time of disclosure to a Receiving Party or becomes part of the 9 public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as a result of publication not 10 involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part of the public record through 11 trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party prior to the 12 disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who 13 obtained the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the 14 Designating Party.
15
16
17

18 3.2 Aggregate information that does not permit the identification of the 19 particular individuals to whom the information relates is not protected even if it is derived
20 from source documents that are designated "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential."
21

22 4. DURATION

23 Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed
24 by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or 25 a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1)
26 dismissal of all claims and defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; (2) final 27
28

1 judgment herein after the completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands,
2 trials, or reviews of this action, including the time limits for filing any motions or 3 applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law; or (3) five years after the 4 effective date of any settlement agreement that is signed by the parties and approved by 5 the Court .

7 5. DESIGNATION OF CONFIDENTIAL & HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

8 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each
9 Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order 10 must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the 11 appropriate standards. The Designating Party must designate for protection only those 12 parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify – so 13 that other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which 14 protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

17 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that 18 are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., 19 to unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process or to impose 20 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Designating Party to 21 sanctions.

23 If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it
24 designated for protection do not qualify for protection, the Designating Party must 25 promptly notify – within ten (10) business days – all other Parties that it is withdrawing 26 the mistaken designation.
27
28

1           5.2    Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this
2 Order or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies
3 for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is 4 disclosed or produced.

6           5.3    Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

7                   (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic 8 documents, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), 9 that the Producing Party affix the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” to 10 each page that contains protected material. If only a portion or portions of the material on 11 a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected
12 portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins). “Confidential
13 Information” set forth in a response to an interrogatory may be so designated by including 14 the word “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” in the response.
15

17           A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for 18 inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has 19 indicated which material it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and 20 before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be deemed 21 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.” After the inspecting Party has identified 22 the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which 23 documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before
24 producing the specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the “CONFIDENTIAL” or 25 the “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” legend to each page that contains Protected Material. If only 26
27
28

1 a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party
2 also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in 3 the margins).

5 (b) for information produced in some form other than documentary
6 and for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on 7 the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the 8 legend "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL." If only a portion or portions of the 9 information or item warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall 10 identify the protected portion(s).

11
12 (c) for testimony given in deposition proceedings, that the Designating
13 Party (or deponent), within thirty (30) calendar days after receiving a deposition
14 transcript, designate pages of the transcript (and/or exhibits thereto) as Protected 15 Material. Until the expiration of the thirty-day period, the entire deposition transcript will 16 be treated as subject to protection against disclosure under this Order. If no Party or 17 deponent timely designates Protected Material in a deposition transcript, then none of the 18 transcript will be treated as protected. If a timely designation is made, pages of transcribed
19 deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be 20 separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as 21 permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order.

24 5.4 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure
25 to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating
26 Party's right to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon timely
27
28

1 correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure
2 that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

3 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

5 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party may challenge a designation of 6 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party's 7 confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness,
8 unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party
9 does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount
10 a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

11
12 6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution 13 process by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and describing the 14 basis for each challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has been made, the 15 written notice must recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance 16 with this specific paragraph of the Protective Order. The parties shall attempt to resolve 17 each challenge in good faith and must begin the process by conferring directly (in voice to 18 voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not sufficient) within ten (10) business
19 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the Challenging Party must explain the 20 basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the 21 Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the 22 circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the 23 chosen designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge 24 process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer process first or establishes that the 25
26
27
28

1 Designating Party is unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process in a timely
2 manner.

3       6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge without court
4 intervention, the Designating Party shall file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality
5 under Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5, if applicable) within 6 twenty (20) business days of the initial notice of challenge or within ten (10) business days
7 of the parties agreeing that the meet and confer process will not resolve their dispute,
8 whichever is later. Each such motion must be accompanied by a competent declaration 9 affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed by 10 paragraph 6.2. Failure by the Designating Party to make such a motion, including the 11 required declaration, within the time allotted by this paragraph shall automatically waive 12 the confidentiality designation for each challenged designation. In addition, the 13 Challenging Party may file a motion challenging a confidentiality designation at any time if 14 there is good cause for doing so, including a challenge to the designation of a deposition
15 transcript or any portions thereof. Any motion brought pursuant to this provision must be 16 accompanied by a competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the 17 meet and confer requirements imposed by the paragraph 6.2.

18       The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the 19 Designating Party. Frivolous challenges and those challenges made for an improper
20 purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties)
21 may expose the Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has waived 22 the confidentiality designation by failing to file a motion to retain confidentiality as 23
24
25
26
27
28

described in this paragraph (paragraph 6.3), all parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level of protection due under this Order for Confidential Information until the Court rules on the challenge.

7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case only for purposes of litigating this class action. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 12 below (re: Maintaining Confidential Information).

Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, information designated as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential," including the portion of any document containing "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" information, may be disclosed by a Receiving Party only to the following persons and only to the extent necessary to litigate this action:

(a) Counsel of Record for Plaintiffs, Counsel of Record for Defendants, Consulting Counsel, and any support staff of such counsel assisting in this action with an appropriate need to know;

1 (b) Experts of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably
2 necessary for this litigation, including evaluation of settlement positions, subject to 3 paragraph 7.3;

4 (c) Witnesses in this action to the extent reasonably believed by counsel
5 to be necessary in connection with their testimony or potential testimony; provided, 6 however, that any such individual (i) shall not retain any documents marked as 7 “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential”; (ii) shall be informed, prior to being shown material
8 designated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” that he/she is being shown such 9 materials solely for use in the above-captioned Actions; and, (iii) prior to being shown
10 material designated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential,” executes an acknowledge 11 and agreement to the bound by the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order in accordance 12 with paragraph 7.3; and/or 13
14
15

16 (d) The Court and its personnel, including court reporters.

17 All persons listed in paragraph 7.2(a) to whom “Confidential” information is 18 disclosed are hereby prohibited from disclosing to, or otherwise discussing with, any 19 person other than those listed in paragraph 7.2(b)-(d), any information designated as 20 “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential,” except as provided in this Stipulated Protective 21 Order.
22

23 7.3 Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound (Exhibit A). All persons listed
24 in paragraphs 7(b) and (c) to whom “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” Information is 25 disclosed shall first be required to read the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order and 26 sign a copy of the Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order, 27
28

1 attached hereto as Exhibit A. Each signed Acknowledgment form shall be maintained by 2 counsel for the Plaintiffs or counsel for the Defendants as appropriate, depending on the 3 Party seeking to disclose Confidential information.

5       7.4     Use of Protected Material in Court Filings.

6       The parties agree to meet and confer over a Receiving Party's request for 7 permission to file Protected Material in the public record. Without written permission
8 from the Designating Party or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all 9 interested persons, a Party may not file in the public record any Protected Material. In the 10 event a Party wishes to use any Protected Material produced under this Stipulated 11 Protective Order in a court filing, such filings shall be filed in accordance with Civil Local 12 Rule 79-5. This provision does not apply to the Parties' submission of Protected Material to 13 the Magistrate Judge assigned to proceed over settlement conferences in this case, 14 provided those submissions are not filed in the public record.
15

17       7.5     Use of Protected Material at Pre-Trial Hearings.

18       Should the need arise for a Receiving Party to use Protected Material at a Hearing
19 prior to trial, the Receiving party shall provide the Designating party with a written 20 explanation of its need – including an explanation as to the reason(s) that the Receiving 21 Party cannot present its argument and/or position without the use of material designated 22 as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” Information and precisely which “Protected
23 Material the Receiving Party plans to use – at least seven (7) business days prior to the 24 hearing. The intention of this advance notice is to allow the Designating Party sufficient
25 opportunity to request that the Court exclude the information from the public record.
26
27
28

Should the Receiving Party provide notice of its intent to use Protected Material at a hearing less than seven (7) business days prior to the hearing, the Receiving Party shall provide a detailed explanation as to the cause(s) behind its failure to provide timely notice and agree not to use any Protected Material at a hearing unless the Designating Party has had an opportunity to request that the Court exclude the information from the public record. The requirements of this paragraph shall not apply to any Protected Material that has been accepted into the public record through a process that complies with paragraph 7.4 or this paragraph prior to the Receiving Party's use of it at a subsequent hearing.

7.6 Use of Protected Material at Trial.

Procedures for introducing Protected Material at trial will be determined at or before the last pre-trial conference in this matter.

8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL," that Party must:

(a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

(b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and

1 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be
2 pursued by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

3 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the 4 subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as 5 "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" before a determination by the court from 6 which the subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party's
7 permission. The Designating Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection 8 from the court of its confidential material and nothing in these provisions should be 9 construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a lawful 10 directive from another court.
11

13 9. A NON-PARTY'S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN THIS
14 LITIGATION

15 9.1 The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-16 Party in this action and designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL." Such 17 information produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the 18 remedies and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be 19 construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.
20

21 9.2 The Parties agree that any discovery sought from Non-Parties who owe a
22 duty of confidentiality to one or more Parties can be disclosed without violating that duty
23 of confidentiality if such discovery would otherwise be covered by this Protective Order
24 and disclosure is made in accordance with this Protective Order. This includes information
25 otherwise protected by 8 C.F.R. § 236.6 if sought by Plaintiffs through a valid discovery
26 request in this action. Because this Protective Order is sufficient to protect such 27
28

1 confidential information, a duty of confidentiality to one of the Parties shall not be a basis
2 for any Non-Party to withhold covered records or information sought through third-party
3 discovery in this litigation.

5 9.3 In the event that a Party is required by a valid discovery request to produce a
6 Non-Party's confidential information in that Party's possession, and the Party is subject to 7 an agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party's confidential information,
8 then the Party shall:

10 (a) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party 11 that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with 12 a Non-Party;

13 (b) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated
14 Protective Order in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably 15 specific description of the information requested; and 16

17 (c) make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-18 Party.

19 9.4 If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this Court 20 within ten (10) business days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the 21 Receiving Party may produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the 22 discovery request and designate that information as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential"
23 as otherwise appropriate under this Stipulated Protective Order. If the Non-Party timely 24 seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce any information in its 25 possession or control that is subject to the confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party
26
27
28

1 before a determination by the Court.<sup>4</sup> Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party
 2 shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in this court of its Protected
 3 Material.

 5 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

6 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed
 7 Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this 8 Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the 9 Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosure(s), (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all 10 unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person(s) to whom 11 unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request such 12 person(s) execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached
 13 hereto as Exhibit A within ten (10) business days of learning of the unauthorized 14 disclosure.
 15
 16

17 11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED
 18 MATERIAL

19 When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently 20 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of 21 the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B).
 22

23 12. MAINTAINING CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

24 The Parties shall maintain "Confidential Information" as follows:
 25
 26

27 <sup>4</sup> The purpose of this provision is to alert the interested parties to the existence of 28 confidentiality rights of a Non-Party and to afford the Non-Party an opportunity to protect its confidentiality interests in this Court.

1           12.1 Counsel of Record and anyone to whom “Confidential” or “Highly 2 Confidential” Information has been disclosed in accordance with section 7.2 shall maintain
3 all remaining “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” Information pursuant to the terms of 4 this Stipulated Protective Order, subject to further order by this Court. Within forty (40)
5 business days after the final disposition of this action – as defined by section 4, including 6 any and all appeals – all discovery and copies thereof in the possession of the Receiving 7 Party and anyone to whom “Confidential Information” has been disclosed in accordance 8 with section 7.2 shall be returned to the Producing Party or destroyed, except as this Court 9 may otherwise order, in accordance with section 13, but excluding the complete set of 10 discovery for counsel’s records contemplated by paragraph 12.2.
11

12           12.2 Notwithstanding paragraphs 12.1 and 12.3, counsel of record for Plaintiffs
13 and counsel of record for Defendants may each maintain one (1) set of discovery –
14 excluding “Highly Confidential” Information, which must be returned or destroyed as 15 contemplated by paragraph 12.1 – for their records, provided that such counsel maintain 16 the confidential nature of the discovery. Also notwithstanding paragraphs 12.1 and 12.3,
17 Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial,
18 deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial
19 exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, 20 even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or 21 constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section
22 4 (Duration).
23
24
25
26
27
28

1           12.3 With the exception of the archival copies contemplated by paragraph 12.2, 2 within sixty (60) days after the final disposition of this action, including any appeals and
3 any ongoing and/or permanent injunctions and as defined in section 4, each Receiving 4 Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material.
5 As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts,
6 compilations, summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the 7 Protected Material but does not include aggregate information that does not permit the 8 identification of the particular individuals to whom the information relates. See paragraph
9 3.2 above. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party
10 must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or 11 entity, to the Designating Party) by the forty (40) calendar-day deadline that (1) identifies 12 (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or destroyed
13 and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, 14 compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the 15 Protected Material.
16
17
18

19 13. MODIFICATIONS AND CONTINUING EFFECT

20
21           13.1 Any Party may apply to this Court at any time, upon proper notice, for a
22 modification of this Stipulated Protective Order with respect to the handling or designation
23 of any document or for any other purpose. This Protective Order shall continue in force
24 until amended or superseded by express order of the Court, and shall survive any final
25 judgment or settlement in this litigation. This Parties shall take such reasonable measures 26
27
28

1 as are necessary and appropriate to prevent the disclosure of Protected Material, through
2 inadvertence or otherwise, after the conclusion of this action.

3 13.2 This Stipulated Protective Order shall be binding upon any present or future
4 party to the Lyon, et al. v. ICE, et al., No. 13-cv-05878-EMC (N.D. Cal.), litigation.

6 13.3 The terms of this Stipulated Protective Order shall survive the termination of 7 this action after its final disposition for purposes of enforcing this Stipulated Protective
8 Order.

10 14. RIGHTS OF PARTIES

11 14.1. Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order shall be construed as a waiver of 12 any defense, right, or claim by either party, nor shall this Stipulated Protective Order affect 13 the right of any Producing Party to seek additional protection against the disclosure of any 14 documents or materials, or of any Receiving Party to seek additional disclosures.
15

16 14.2. This Stipulated Protective Order shall be effective and enforceable upon 17 entry by the Court, except that the Parties shall agree to abide by its terms prior to entry of 18 any order.

19 14.3 Agreement to this Protective Order does not waive any rights of any Party to 20 assert, and/or object to, a claim of any privilege or other protection from disclosure as to 21 these or similar documents.
22

23 14.4 Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order shall preclude the disclosure of 24 any "Confidential" Information with respect to an individual who affirmatively consents in 25 writing to the disclosure of his/her own private information.
26
27
28

1           14.5 This Stipulated Protective Order shall not preclude any Party from disclosing
2 publicly-available information.
